November is National Adoption Month!

November is National Adoption Month, a month set aside to raise awareness about the adoption of children and youth from foster care

Vermont has lots of fun events for adoptive families of all kinds, all over the state. To learn more, visit the Vermont Adoption Consortium website at http://www.vtadoption.org/event_calendar.html

Vermont Children's Aid Society is a private not-for-profit organization with offices in Winooski and Woodstock, Vermont. Professional staff has been supporting and strengthening families since 1919 through a variety of comprehensive programs including adoption services, child and family counseling, a children's summer camp, and services for families affected by a parent's incarceration. VCAS is dedicated to the provision of services that support and strengthen families, and promote safe, stable, and nurturing environments for children.

VCAS is a member of six United Way chapters in Vermont and of the Child Welfare League of America, as well as a recipient of the Better Business Bureau Charity Seal of Approval
